Program Notes

Dutch composer Jacob Ter Veldhuis writes many works for solo instrument accompanied by soundtrack. Billie is one example of these compositions based entirely on the life and voice of Billie Holiday, a famous African American jazz vocalist. Ter Veldhuis uses recorded fragments of Holiday’s voice from various interviews throughout her career. Her speech is paired with a prerecorded accompaniment that complements the saxophone part. Billie depicts hardships of Holiday’s life, and references a fragment of one of her famous songs, Strange Fruit.

Strange Fruit

Southern trees bear strange fruit
Blood on the leaves and blood at the root
Black bodies swinging in the southern breeze
Strange fruit hanging from the popular trees

Pastoral scene of the gallant south
The bulging eyes and the twisted mouth
Scent of magnolias, sweet and fresh
Then the sudden smell of burning flesh

Here is fruit for the crows to pluck
For the rain to gather, for the wind to suck
For the sun to rot, for the trees to drop
Here is a strange and bitter cry

This recital is presented in partial fulfillment of the requirements for a Bachelor of Arts degree in music education. Mr. Bailey is a student in the saxophone studio of Dr. Ed Bingham.
