3. REPORT OF THE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT:

Mr. Farrell reported that:

- He is accessible to faculty -- join him for lunch at Harless Hall; he wants to visit classes; he has met with the Faculty Senate’s Legislative Affairs Committee, and others.
- He realizes what an asset faculty are and that they are not given the respect as accorded. To change the public’s perception of faculty he proposes producing informative videos on “A Day in the Life of a Professor” as a part of the education process to make them understand who faculty are.
- Former Governor Wise’s budget contains an $18 million reduction for higher education, which translates to a $3.2 million reduction for Marshall University. There will also be an increase in the BRIM premium for the Medical School.
- He is submitting a report to Govern Manchin pertaining to the return on investment that West Virginia receives for providing funding to Marshall University. There are three choices to obtaining additional funding: get more funding from the state, increase enrollment, and expand alumni donations.
- He has formed a Heritage Committee comprised of former professors to identify ways to pay tribute to those who have made significant educational contributions to the university.

in Huntington, South Charleston, and Charleston to discuss characteristic traits the new president should possess. The search committee will also select a consulting firm to assist them.

- It is imperative that we educate the members of the governance structure of West Virginia as to the impact that Marshall University has on the economy and its citizens.

5. ACF REPORT:

Dr. Miller reported that:
- The ACF is scheduling a faculty day at the legislature, a separate event from the higher education day at the legislature.
