I. Call To Order

Upon determining a quorum was present, Dr. Joseph Touma called the meeting to order.

II. Approval of Prior Minutes

Upon a motion by Joseph McDonie, seconded by Edward Howard, the Board approved the minutes of the April 22-23, 2014 regular meeting.

III. President’s Report

Dr. Kopp recognized Dr. Touma, as this meeting was his last meeting as Chairman of the Board. He noted his appreciation for all Dr. Touma had done for Marshall University during the past two years as Chairman.

Dr. Kopp talked about the summer activities noting that it had been a very busy summer thus far. He discussed the MU Foundation investments were up, and the Board investments are up. On June 30th, the “First in the World” competition sponsored by the federal Department of Education would be submitted. This is a strong application and we are hopeful for success.

The two ad hoc committees of the Board of Governors met in early June. He thanked all board members that participated and that are appreciative of your support.

Enrollment for fall semester is fluctuating at this time.

Since our last meeting, the schedule has been very busy. Some highlights are:
Alumni Weekend/Awards Banquet. Dr. Eric George, a hand surgeon from New Orleans was honored. He is such an impressive person and a Marshall graduate;

Dr. Gallo spoke at the School of Medicine Convocation;

Brad Smith, CEO of Intuit, spoke at Spring Commencement. Another impressive graduate of Marshall University;

Went to Dubai to talk to representatives regarding a Marshall University School of Medicine presence there;

Conference USA meeting. A handout was given regarding a NCAA Litigation Update.

Newseum Alumni event on June 18th in Washington, DC. There was a special tribute given to Senator Rockefeller at this event.

Recognition and introduction of Brandi Jacobs-Jones to the MU Board of Governors.
