That the following "Faculty Overload Policy" be approved:

FACULTY OVERLOAD POLICY

Marshall University faculty are not expected to teach more than 12 hours or equivalent per term.

Compensated overloads may be approved by deans for faculty to teach Marshall University courses either on or off-campus.

Non-compensated overloads for on-campus teaching will be approved only when emergency situations arise. The appropriate Chair, Dean, and Vice-President for Academic Affairs will determine when or if an emergency situation exists. Non-compensated overloads shall not be continued beyond the semester in which the emergency occurs.

This policy applies only to faculty overloads at Marshall University.
